KINGSPPOINT CLUB NEWS:

Happy Spring! As we look ahead to warmer weather, we'd also like to let you know about some upcoming happenings at the clubhouse. On Sunday, April 9 we will have our annual Easter Egg Hunt (time TBD). We hope all families with young kids can make it. We are happy to accept candy donations to fill the eggs. More details to come.

Mark your calendars for Sunday, April 23 for our Annual Club O'Beautiful Day from 1-5 p.m. Our new facilities director Dave Stanhope is developing the list of projects. We will send out a sign-up sheet in upcoming weeks.

Our new pool management company will be replacing the old filters in the pump room in the upcoming weeks and readying the pool for opening on Memorial Day Weekend. We're already looking forward to getting back down to the pool in the warmer weather!

Finally, please let us know if you encounter any suspicious activity at the clubhouse. We recently received a report of someone in a black Chevy pick-up truck doing donuts in the field next to the gravel parking lot. The driver sped away before our witness was able to write down the license plate. The clubhouse is a wonderful asset to our neighborhood. We appreciate everyone who keeps a watchful eye in order to help protect it.

See you on the Kingspoint Green!

Kingspoint Club AMBASSADOR Program

Help us welcome new neighbors to Kingspoint! In addition to bringing something small (plant, cookies, etc.) we would like Kingspoint ambassadors to share what the club has to offer and how the new neighbor may be able to get involved in the community. I will be working with the membership team and listing agents to try to educate both sellers and buyers of the current state of household stock in order to ease the transition from one homeowner to the next. If you would like to join the ambassador program, please email me at mollythiel@hotmail.com.

This is a bridge month for gardens. Some things need to be done and others are just beginning. You can divide clump-forming, spring-blooming shrubs before flowers or leaves appear for plants such as Japanese kerria, forsythia and winter honeysuckle. Cut plants back to about 4 inches before digging. It is also a good time to prune evergreens. Let your self-sowing plants set and drop seed. Once they are done it is easy to prune them. As they are crisp from winter I just snap them off in my hands and throw them in the old recycling bin that we used to use before they were replaced with the new ones on wheels. You can grow your own edibles, such as radishes, peas, lettuce, broccoli and cauliflower as soon as you can work the soil. Wait to plant warm-season annuals such as tomatoes, peppers, squash, etc. after all danger of frost. I stick to cherry tomatoes, banana and other small peppers as they seem to do better. If you start any veggies indoors remember to harden them off by slowly letting them get used to the outdoors before planting them. Make weekly plantings of lettuce and spinach to ensure a long harvest season. Grubs become active this month. Check with your local extension office to learn which treatments work best. If you have not already done so, trim Mondo grass and lirioppe before new growth appears. You can use a lawn mower and then rake up. It is also a good time to refresh the water garden, if you have one. Clean debris and muck and add it to your compost pile. I don't know what I would do without our compost pile. It is a free source of soil. The best thing you can do for your garden is mulch. Two to three inches will stop many weeds from growing and helps your soil stay moist during hot, dry weather. Look for inexpensive or free mulch materials. Keep your perennials healthy and looking good by dividing them every few years. Divide once their new foliage has grown a couple of inches tall. Plant the divisions in bare spots, or use them to trade with your gardening friends. Wait to divide spring blooming favorites such as bleeding heart and barren wort after they've vanished blooming. If you allowed your flowers to self-seed they will naturalize and drop seeds. This way they will be sure to come back next year. Last but not least, don't jump the gun and feed your lawn too early. In most areas it is best to wait until the grass starts actively growing. I am enjoying wandering around in our garden to see what is happening. The blue eyed grass I got from the CW nursery last fall is growing, my lilac shrub I moved to a sunnier spot seems to be happy and has loads of leaves on it, and my saucer magnolia we planted a couple of years ago is starting to grow and has loads of beautiful red flowers on it. This is a great time to wander around in your garden and enjoy the magic of early spring.

In April we will be visiting the English Connection Nursery and Gardens in Surry. More details to follow as we finalize plans.

As mentioned last month, for nearly 4 decades the garden club has been decorating the front entrance. After some discussion it was decided that we would no longer be doing this. If anyone in Kingspoint would like to take this project over, we have the forms to donate for anyone wishing to continue this tradition. Please give me a call about this if you are interested.

Yours in gardening,
Mary Grogan

NEIGHBORLY REMINDERS

I have been asked by neighbors to remind you of the following safety reminders:

Two sides to every story:

Last month I provided requested reminders to walkers. This month, I have been asked to remind DRIVERS to drive appropriately in the neighborhood. Our speed limit is 25 mph. Texting is illegal while driving. Please give a reasonable space to walkers and cyclists. Now that the weather is more moderate we know our streets will be full of neighbors out enjoying our neighborhood. I know we can all be considerate of each other while out walking, riding or driving☺

James City County participates in an Annual Spring Cleanup each April. More than seven million pounds of trash have been collected from public spaces by volunteers over the years. The Clean County Commission will sponsor this year's Annual Spring Cleanup on April 22 with a grant from the Department of Environmental Quality. You may register online if you or your group plans to participate this year.

Let's work together to hold our own spring cleanup here in Kingspoint this month. Many neighbors are already hard at work, cleaning up what winter left behind in our yards, while preparing our gardens for the growing season. Our neighbors appreciate every small effort we each make to keep our community looking neat and well maintained.

If you need help, you'll find neighbors ready to assist. Dependable neighbors advertise their availability each month in The Crier, and can help with home repairs, yard maintenance and construction.

You may request a county truck to pick up large debris such as discarded furniture, appliances, old stumps and tree trunks, yard waste, and other bulky refuse for a $75.00 fee. Contact Jim Hill at 565-0971 to make an appointment, and find more information here. You may drop most of these things off yourself at the Jolly Pond Road facility. Many items, such as old grills, propane tanks, scrap metal and lawnmowers; can be dropped off for free.

As the weather warms, please eliminate standing water around your home. We need to prevent water from collecting in containers, outdoor furniture, vehicles, refuse, or anywhere else mosquitoes may breed over the next several months.

Mosquitoes breeding in our area can carry a number of serious diseases, including Zika, Encephalitis, West Nile Virus and others; which can have a devastating impact on young children, pregnant women, and the elderly. Prevention is important. We want to do our part to keep ourselves and our neighbors from contracting any of these mosquito borne illnesses.

Please also remain aware of ticks, and take precautions to protect yourself, your children and pets from the ticks found here. Tick bites also transmit disease and cause serious infections. Ticks normally reappear in March, and are most common in areas frequented by deer and other wildlife.

Neighbors report some unusual wildlife sightings in Kingspoint lately. Please remain aware that all sorts of creatures are active a little earlier than usual this year.

The next Household Chemical Collection Day is April 9 from 8 AM until noon at Warhill High School. You may drop off many household, garden and automotive products at no charge, including compact fluorescent light bulbs and some consumer electronics.

We appreciate Harvey Manning's continued work repairing our street signs this spring, and the ongoing efforts of our front entrance volunteers.

Please continue to let us know when new neighbors arrive near you. We want to welcome all new neighbors and bring them a current Kingspoint Directory.

Visit our KPNA website for news and useful community links. Webmistress Anneliese Brei regularly updates the website with new information. We will post frequent updates about the proposed Williamsburg Landing expansion as that information comes available. Follow our site to receive the latest news as it is posted.

Advice From WJCC Master Gardeners and The JCC Rain Garden Grant Program

If you need expert advice, JCC Master Gardeners are available to consult with us about our yards, and our county's Storm water Division administers a grant program to reimburse residents who install a rain garden to catch run-off from heavy rains. Rain gardens recharge our groundwater and help filter pollutants which otherwise would reach our creeks and the Chesapeake Bay.

If you are interested in the county's Rain Garden rebate grant program, begin by enrolling in Turf Love this spring. There is a small fee to enroll, but grants will reimburse homeowners up to \$600 in rain garden expenses per year for gardens designed as part of the Turf Love/Garden Love program.

Contact Virginia Cooperative Extension at 757-564-2170 for more details. Find the application and pre-visit check lists at the Turf Love website.

You may also apply, until April 15, for the Master Gardener's Landscape Love program to receive free, expert help with problem areas in your yard.

FYI: Proposed Expansion at the Williamsburg Landing

Representatives for the Williamsburg Landing recently notified your KPNA of their plans to expand their facilities. They are in negotiations to purchase additional land for future expansion, and are working with James City County to change the Zoning of that land from R-8 Rural Residential to R-5 Multi-family Residential.

They have also requested a special use permit for an independent living facility, and a height waiver to allow a multi-story building on that property. The 15.5 acre property under consideration is between the airport and the Williamsburg Landing, and is visible from Kingspoint across College Creek.

The initial information we have received indicates that the expansion would be at the western end of that property, part of which has already been cleared of trees. A portion of this property near College Creek, which lies within the Resource Protection Area, would not be developed. An adjoining area would be excavated to hold a drainage (BMP) pond.

According to county planners, this parcel of land currently is zoned R-8, Rural Residential, which allows one home per 3 acres. The requested zoning change to R-5, Multi-family Residential, allows for town homes, duplexes and apartment buildings. As many as 135 housing units may be built on approximately 13 acres of this parcel, which may include a multi-story apartment building of about 70 units.

The requested height waiver, if granted by our Board of Supervisors, would allow an apartment building of up to 60 feet high on this parcel, roughly across College Creek from the Kingspoint Clubhouse. It is unclear, at this time, whether or not that building would be visible from Kingspoint or the Rt. 199 Bridge.

Any change in zoning remains a permanent part of James City County's Comprehensive Plan. If, for any reason, The Landing purchased the land but didn't build their planned expansion; the land could be re-sold to another party and still developed as high density, multi-family housing.

KPNA members are in process of meeting with county staff and The Williamsburg Landing's representatives to learn as much as we can about the project. We will post this information, as it becomes available, on the KPNA website.

The James City County Planning Commission will consider the request for re-zoning at their meeting on April 5. After the Planning Commission's recommendation, this matter will be referred to the Board of Supervisors for final approval. The earliest date the Board of Supervisors might consider these requests would be May 9.

Our neighbor, Danny Schmidt, represents the Roberts District on the Planning Commission. You may contact him about this project at Danny.Schmidt@jamescitycountva.gov .

You may follow the progress of this Case # Z-0001-2017 on the count's website. Planner Alex Baruch is handling this case. You may call him at 757-253-6689 with any questions ahead of the Planning Commission meeting, or email him at Alex.Baruch@jamescitycountyva.gov .
